

KP-124
1962

August 27, 1962

Handwritten notes of President Kennedy at his desk to be used in connection with a statement on Cuba.

1st page

, spur of the moment and hit and run raid such as this only strenthens the communist cause, not weaken it.

While we appreciate the strong feelings of this free student group and their hostility to the most oppressive regime

2nd page

we cannot approve of the use of the United States territory for such activities.

The Justice Department has been instructed to impound the goods - and we must inform those involved that any repetition

3rd page

by any group will bring this under the provisions and penalties of the neutrality netrality Act.

statement
city
Aug. 27, 1962

hard work on this, ^{do not use the} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~the~~
the common cause
had been to

While we thank the many feelings
of these people
I understand
and then looking to the end of the season again

you are building the
under the program
and practices
the new building, etc.

we cannot ignore
of the use of the United States
territory from action.

The Justice Dept
has been involved in about the lands and we must hope there would
that any, reputation